

Tomah Baseball Expectations

Expectations of Coaches:

- Players will be treated fairly and consistently
- Coaches will not use profanity or vulgar language
- Coaches will be prompt in communicating schedule changes
- Coaches will use a variety of drills to enhance skills and challenge athletes
- Coaches will enforce team policies as listed in the team handbook
- Coaches will communicate changes in player behavior to parents
- Coaches will focus on winning as a result of proper player development
- Communicate face-to-face or by phone to parents any issues regarding their child
- Win with class, lose with dignity

Expectations of Parents:

- Get players to the school for games and practices on time
- Help players keep practice and game attire clean
- Provide positive encouragement to all athletes
- Refrain from abusive language to athletes, parents, officials, or opposing teams
- Notify the coach of their child's physical or mental health issues
- Wait 24 hours before contacting a coach after a game to discuss a sensitive topic
- Talk to your son about their expectations for this season
- Win with class, lose with dignity

Expectations of Athletes:

- Attend all games and practices
- Contact the coach if you will be late or miss an event
- Have a positive attitude
- Work hard for practices, games, and other team events
- Accept constructive criticism
- Represent the program in a positive manner in all aspects of your life
- Maintain the standards of the team guide and Athletic Code
- Win with class, lose with dignity