TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

The Tomah Area School District has the following vacancies beginning in the 2024-2025 school year:

Secondary Instructional Coach (2 Positions)

The instructional coach is an innovative educator who will assist teachers to practice high-quality student-centered instruction within the classroom. This position requires a dynamic and progressive teacher who has a strong background in: 1) Coaching cycles with an emphasis on student outcomes, 2) Professional Learning Communities, 3) The ability to build strong relationships, 4) Differentiated Instruction, and 5) Equitable Multi-Level System of Supports (EMLSS). The Instructional Coach must have excellent written and verbal communication skills, be highly organized, and demonstrate a positive attitude. Collaboration with other Instructional Coaches and the curriculum, instruction, assessment, and technology teams regarding research-based methodologies for all students is highly important.

Both positions are full-time positions starting with the 2024-2025 school year. Co-curricular coaching and advisor positions are available.

Qualifications: Must have, or be eligible for, a Wisconsin Department of Public Instruction teaching license. Prefer a Master's degree or a Reading license. Five years of classroom experience is required.

Application Deadline: April 2, 2024
