TASD Athletic Director Brad Plueger opened the ceremony, welcoming the inductees, their families, and guests. Each inductee was presented into the Hall of Fame with moving speeches that highlighted their high school record, their current achievements, and their character. Ron Grovesteen was presented into the HOF by his daughter Jennifer Vogl, Tricia Betthauser was presented into the HOF by her aunt Cindy Abendschein, Tyler Laudon was presented into the HOF by THS Wrestling Coach Jeff Von Haden, and Hale Quandt was presented into the HOF by retired THS AD Tom Curran. Inductees addressed the room, recounting memories, thanking coaches, their families, and those who inspired them. Hard work, dedication, a love for what they did and supportive people in their lives, were repeating themes heard throughout all the speeches.

Below, are the accomplishments of each inductee, that earned them a place in the Athletic Hall of Fame. Their plaques now reside in the HOF Hallway outside of the High School Gymnasium, not only as a tribute to what they achieved, but also to inspire our current and future athletes.
